REPORT NO.

1. The Chief of Staff of the Territorial Command in South Malang reports that a total of 1,700 prisoners, belonging to the Peoples' Democratic Front and the Tentara Nasional Indonesia Masjarakat, have been taken. Various organizations, such as the Hisboellahs, took advantage of the revolt and seized weapons and money.
2. Only a few units of the Pesindo and the Laskar Merah during the revolt received instructions from Moeso and Amir Sjarifoedin. It appears from various documents that the plan of the revolt depended upon the intimidation of public officials.
